Healthcare Foundation Board Welcomes New Trustees

Sarasota Memorial Healthcare Foundation, Inc. is pleased to announce that Margaret Callihan, Lawrence English and Carolyn Ann Holder joined the board of trustees on October 1, 2007.

Margaret Callihan has been president, chief executive and chairman of the Southwest Florida Region of SunTrust since 2005. She has served in leadership positions with the Chamber of Commerce, the Community Foundation, the Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Economic Development Corporation, the University of South Florida Community Leadership Council, and Leadership Florida.

Lawrence English had a distinguished 33-career with CIGNA Corporation and its predecessor, Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, serving as president of three divisions. In 1999, he founded Lawrence P. English, Inc., a private crisis management and turn-around management firm. Mr. English was recruited to be CEO and director of QuadraMed in 2000.

Carolyn Ann Holder owned and operated a dance school, served as a director of the Barbizon School of Modeling in Atlanta, Ga. and Mobile, Ala., and helped develop and build several real estate projects. Mrs. Holder has served on the board of trustees for Highland-Cashiers Hospital Foundation in North Carolina.

Sarasota Memorial Healthcare Foundation, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization with the mission to improve the delivery of healthcare for the Sarasota area through the acquisition and utilization of philanthropic funds and has granted more than $32 million since its incorporation in 1976.
